

this is in regards to the CBA(consumer bankers association) challenging of indiana state telephone privacy law.
the privacy law has helped me get some peace of mind in the privacy of my home since a lot of unwanted calls has been blocked this is true for everybody that has signed up for this program imposing the "established business relationship" exemption will remove that.
we do not want that.